

THURSDAY.....MAY 26

LOOK AT THESE FIGURES.

There were 253 votes against $40,000 bonds and 241 for the $10,000 bonds. This makes in this community 494 votes against taxing the District $40,000.

Only 13 voters could be found in the city who voted for the "Special Tax" clause.

This means there were only 13 people who dare trust the jobbers with unlimited powers. Out of 286 voters who voted on the $10,000 bonds only 45 voted no.

These figures taken from the corrected returns ought to convince any one that the voters do not want any $40,000 proposition running on a twenty years interest.

Had the School Trustees put up a fair and square as the APPEAL asked them to, it would have read:

For $40,000, new building.
For $10,000 bonds, repairs.

Then the question would have been settled for repairs and no more elections needed. The claims by the beaten party that the election is invalid, we consider correct.

The $10,000 proposition was not advertised in the election proclamation because the men engineering the job proposed to make it "$40,000 or nothing."

After the time had passed to advertise the saving clause of $10,000, the citizens were at the mercy of the ring, yet the way the matter was manipulated roused so much opposition that the opponents of the scheme, even, with their forces divided by the form of the ticket, cut in two you might say, beat the job.

Had the issue been fairly prevented the $40,000 advocates would have been snowed under two to one.

There were 253 votes squarely recorded against the $40,000 proposition and only 45 against the $10,000. Can anything be plainer than this?

COAST NEWS.

The Salton Sea phenomena is expected to recur.

Lee Horrell, the Rio Vista murderer has received a life sentence.

Captain Burgess, a mining Superintendent, was shot at Tucson by an Indian in a dispute over wages. Burgess lost an eye.

Clouds, with electrical displays, followed by strong winds, were phenomena witnessed at Bakersfield Saturday and Sunday.

Walden S. Lord, about twenty-five years of age, living near Alviso, who had been quite ill, and was hopeless of recovery killed himself.

Telegrams have reached Phoenix A. T., from Hermosillo, Mexico, telling of the defeat of the Mexican troops by the Yaqui Indians, against whom a war of extermination has been inaugurated by the Mexican Government.

John Clayton, alias John Clay, a horse thief on trial at Phoenix, A. T. at the close of the testimony arose and moved the Court to instruct the jury to find a verdict of guilt, without leaving their seats, which they did. Clayton comes from a good family living near Memphis, Tenn.

Homer Carrion, a young rancher, living in Muck county, Wash., was drowned Saturday while trying to ford the Nisqually river. He was engaged to marry a young lady from Olympia and was then on his way to that city to procure the marriage license. The marriage was to take place this week.

At Spokane Tuesday, a fire started in the factory of the Spokane Mill Company which was destroyed. The Echo Rolling Mills, Oatley & Echans Oat meal Mills and the Washington Shingle Mills and four cottages were destroyed. The Howard street bridge, the National Iron Work and the steam laundry were badly damaged. The total loss is about $250,000.

Some men are very fond of bonding a town, to erect handsome buildings, but they take good care never to put a cent of their own money in. Many of the resident howlers for the $40,000 school bonds have lived for years in this community and have never seen fit to erect a building of their own. Take the Tribune man for instance. Every cent he makes in this city goes to California for investment. People better show their faith by their works.
